MESSAGE FROM CHRIS HANCOCK

“May I, on behalf of Johns family, thank all those who attended his funeral and remembrance celebration afterwards. We also appreciate the kind comments left on this website and the words spoken about him on Tuesday. The music we chose for the cremation was Game of Thrones, Chariots of Fire and Golden Brown by the Stranglers. We hope John was watching and approved. We hope to arrange for a commemorative cup to be presented to the club, in Johns memory, and which may be awarded to the athletic who most approaches Johns ideals each year. Thank you all.

Chris”

"I joined Ilford AC when I was 15 years old. I first met John and he instantly gave me advice on my running. He never stopped giving me advice since I left in 2007. I won't forget the amount of times he gave me physio on my bad hamstring and always saw the positive in people. See you another time John. " Gary Smallman

"I will never forget the first time I saw John striding out along the back straight at Cricklefield."Class" was the word that came to mind. A great athlete and ambassador for the sport. As a freshman at Borough Road College, John was the perfect mentor, taking time out to show me around the campus and tell me where not to go and who not to hang out with. If only I'd listened to his words ...

We spoke of running the Essex Vets CC together at the end of November. I somehow think John will still be there. He will be enormously missed and never forgotten. A true gentle man. RIP." Dear John, Did we( you, me and Alan Cearns ) really dismantle Brian Meadow's car as he drove along the M.3.( or was it the A.3.?) at speed. My only excuse is that we were young and foolish. I would like to point out that I was the only one who attempted to restore order, by stopping the rear seat from being thrown out the window.....I did once catch sight of the famous John Cleese walk ...

From our first meeting in 1971, through those special college days, Ilford AC sporting 'hey days', after training football matches, gym sessions and much much more!
