

Tribute from Henry Ricketts

“John, the man who always had time at the track to chat and offer advice. It’s a shame I didn’t get to see you in your prime. I suppose you can continue your many discussions with Jim about who was the better sprinter. My thoughts go out to the family. RIP John.”