

Newman Hilly 5

Wednesday 13th July 2016

Ilford AC successfully hosted their showcase event at Chigwell Row last Wednesday evening with the 26th running of the Newman Hilly 5 which was also the 4th race of the extremely popular Elvis series. Well over 200 runners took to the trails of Hainault Forest over a 2 lap course of just over 5 miles on a cool but pleasant evening which provided almost near perfect running conditions although recent rain had made the terrain a little muddy underfoot.

As always this event shows the club at its best and even with an army of volunteers and marshals was still able to put out 21 runners and dominate the men's race. At the end of the first lap training partners Ahmed Abdulle and Tom Gardner were locked together well out in front with the chasers including a posse of Ilford vets. It was the in-form 17 year old Abdulle who looked the easiest and so it proved as he pulled away opening up a 40 second gap and finishing in 26.57 with Gardner back in second in 27.37, Billericay's Crispian Bloomfield was third a further 37 seconds adrift and top male vet 40 on the day. 4th place went to Alex Richards of Ilford in 28.43 whilst Steve Philcox, 7th in 30.07, and Andy Catton, 50th in 36.10, both scooped the supervet prizes in the MV40 and MV50 categories.

The Ilford men continued to pack well with Paul Holloway, Sam Rahman, Usamah Patel, Robin Mc Nelis and Kevin Wotton making 9 Ilford runners home in the top 20 positions. Needless to say the Club took both the Men's Race team and Elvis team victories on the night.

The ladies fielded a weakened team with many out either through volunteering duties or through injury but nevertheless still managed to close a team with Bee Nordin once again leading the troops home clocking 37.10 for 3rd lady home and first in the FV55 category. She was joined by Julia Galea 33rd lady in 45.50, Carol Muir 49th lady in 49.46 and Nichola Fairburn, 49.52 as 51st lady closing the team to 6th on the night in the Elvis competition. The club also had 2 ladies from their Harriers section Launa Broadley, 56.28, and Sheila Sinclair, 57.21, 67th and 68th ladies respectively. The usual very strong East London Runners squad were top team on the night in both the ladies team race and Elvis competitions.

The current Elvis standings with 3 races to go shows Ilford and East London Runners in a titanic battle, locked together on 6 points. In the ladies East London Runners are in a strong and virtually unassailable pole position with just 4 points following their 4th consecutive victory with Ilford back in 4th on 16 points

Other Ilford runners positions and times were 21st Neil Crisp 32.12, 37th Rohan Alexander 34.31, 42nd Terry Knightley 35.02, 51st Bradley Brown 36.11, 74th Declan Cullen 37.57, 115th Satha Alaga 42.1, 148th Sukhbindar Jandu 46.39.
