Big Punkin 5k

Greenville, South Carolina

Saturday 27th October

On an autumnal Saturday morning perfect for running the 14th Runfest was held in Greenville, South Carolina. The event is 5 races ranging from the marathon to the 1 mile childrens run. Ilford AC endurance coach was on his annual visit where he guest coaches the local track club on their midweek workouts, took part. He ran in the Big Punkin 5km as he has been bothered by a knee problem since the World Masters Championship in Malaga in September. With Greenville being in the foothills of the Smokie Mountains the courses are always challenging and Rob was pleased to record 28 minutes exactly to finish 60th in a field of 551. This result earned the 3rd place award in the M60-64 age group.
