National Cross Country Champs

Leeds

23rd February 2019

The National cross country championships, held by the English Cross Country Association was held at Harewood House, Leeds, on Saturday.

Pitting himself against the finest athletes in the country was Ilford's sole entrant Trevor Robinson.

Over a demanding and hilly 12.k course Trevor gave a very good account of himself, finishing in a time of 1:10 which placed him in 1,963rd place.

Brighton Half Marathon

24th February 2019

Over 7,000 runners ran the Brighton Half Marathon this year in unseasonably warm weather.

Ilford's sole representative Carlie Qirem made the trip down south for what she describes as one of her favourite races, as part of her London Marathon preparations, which continue to go well.

The race is run almost entirely along the seafront, on an out and back course which takes in local landmarks such as Brighton Pier, Brighton Marina and the Royal Pavilion.

Carlie showed that her hard work this season is paying dividends by smashing her PB by over 3 mins to record a time of 1:41:42 which placed her 1001st on the day in the large field.

English Masters

Lee Valley

24th February 2019

Although Ilford AC Super-vet John Batchelor continues to struggle with Injury he still put in a couple of fine performances at the English Masters this weekend.

In the M70 800m race John finished 3rd with a seasons best time of 3:10:34, before moving on to the 1500m. This race was always going to be a tougher one for John as he had to step down an age category to compete in the M60 class, but once again John recorded a seasons best to finish in a time of 6:41 for 10th place

Hillingdon 10k

24th February 2019

Doris Gaga, fresh from her Half Marathon in Ethiopia two weeks ago stepped down a distance to race in the Hillingdon 10k at the weekend with her sister.

The race is a popular one in the running calendar and starts and finishes in the modern surroundings of Brunel University in Uxbridge.

Doris' recent hard work in training showed as she ran an excellent race to place 3rd V50 on the day with a PB time over the distance of 50:56.

The result also placed her 62nd on the day in a field of almost 300.
