

Southern Athletics League - Match 3

Parliament Hill, London

Saturday 15th June

Iford made a short trip across town to Parliament Hill fields for their third Southern League fixture of the season, unfortunately the recent wind and rain prevailed so times were generally slow.

Top performer on the men's side was recent new joiner Paul Grange, who firstly came second in a very fast 800m in a time of 1.56.2, this knocked over 10 seconds Iford's over 40's club record, not content with this he came back less than an hour later to come second in the 400m in a time of 52.7, which was again an Iford vets record. Jak Wright also did the 400m/800m double and in finishing 2nd in the B string in both events, set two new pbs of 2.05.0 and 56.9.

Despite not training since the last match Dan Wheeler was his usual busy self, with second in the A string 100m, 3rd in the A string 400m hurdles in a pb of 66.8, 3rd in the A sting High Jump, 3rd in the B string shot, before running a leg in the 4x 100 relay. Wanya Williams did both sprints with 3rd in the B string 100m and 4th in 200m, before anchoring the 4x 100 relay team to victory.

The mens middle distance side continues to score excellent points, after having some time off for exams Bradley Deacon took a very good 4th place in the 1500m in a pb time of 4.26.8, with Phil Elull taking 3rd in the B string. Tom Gardner and Sam Rahman took on the longest event of the day the 5000m, and in a high quality field both took 3rd places. Iford scored maximum points in the Steeplechase with Mungo Prior running a pb of 6.19.6 and Aaron Samuel winning the B string in his debut over the 2k distance.

Nat Senior took on several events with 4th in the B string high jump, second in the A sting long jump, 4th in the A string shot before running a very good second leg in the 4x 100 relay. Sam Malekout has been Iford's top point scorer for the last two seasons and continues to amass points, he started off with 3rd in the Pole Vault, 4th in the A string triple jump, he had a very good throw in the discus of 29 metres for another 3rd place, 4th in the B string Hammer, a good second place in the javelin with a throw of 37.96, before finishing his day with the opening leg of the 4x 100 relay.

Jack Halil has been experimenting with 400m hurdles this year, he was disappointed with his race, but picked himself to gain valuable points in the long jump where he won the B string in a pb of 5.09, followed by 3rd in the B string triple jump. Roger Honey has become a valuable member of the team this season picking up points in events where we have struggled in the past, he came second in the B string pole vault, second in the B string discus and 4th in the A string Hammer. Alex Richards who is injured could not run, became a willing victim for the Javelin and threw a very good 25.56 for 3rd place.

The 4x 400 team was made up of middle distance runners, Jak Wright led the team off with 57.4 for 3rd place, Mungo ran second lap and retained 3rd with a leg of 57.6. Aaron run a great 3rd leg of 54.4, but still in 3rd. Paul had his third great run of the day with a split of 51.8 to bring the team home second.

Bradley Brown competed in the non scoring 5000m and 1500m, running times of 22.52.3 and 7.08.3

The women's side suffered more with the drop outs and were only left with five competitors, all of them put themselves out to try additional and earn valuable points. Krystle Balogun led the way scoring 18.5 including first in the A sting 100, second in the A string 200m, and winning the B string 400m. It was good to see Esmeralda Mengeyele back injury and she was straight into the thick of things, with victory in the A string 100m in 13.0 secs dead, 3rd in the A string Long jump , 5th in the A string shot and 3rd in the A string Javelin.

Both Gemima Eshimu Massamba and Ayshah Lawrence have been busy with exams over the last few months, but they put the books down for the day to compete, Gemima won the A sting 400m, before being persuaded to take one throw in the Javelin, which turned to get her second in the B string. Ayshah had a great run the 200m taking in the B string in a pb of 29.0, before then competing in the Long jump and discus.

Nicola Hopkinson was Ilfords only lady middle distance runner and came 4th in the A string 1500m and 5th in the A string 3000m, before also gaining points in the shot and discus.

The 4x 100 team of Gemima, Ayshah, Krystle and Esmeralda stormed to victory in a very quick time.

Ilford ended the match in 4th place.
