

ESSEX CROSS-COUNTRY LEAGUE

Horseheath, Cambridge

Saturday 26 October

Last weekends Essex League cross country match doubled up as a qualifying opportunity for the Junior runners to represent Essex in the Southern inter counties on the 7th of December. Ilford AC were very well represented across the age groups

U17 boys as usual performed outstandingly with Aaron Samuels winning by a sizable margin in 21:16 earning him top spot on the Essex team.

Jak Wright was the only other qualifying athlete on the day securing 5th in 22:25 with Bradley Deacon only 3 positions away from the required top 8 coming home in 11th position in 23:07 over the 6k distance

U15 boys regular scorer Ryan Holeyman was our first athlete home for 18th place in a competitive field in 15:23. Accompanying him was Jacob Emeagi in 19:13 for 41st place and Vitor Martins-Duraes in 19:18 for 42nd place for the 4k

Joseph Grange, running for the U13 boys in the 3k distance had his hopes of an Essex representative vest slip as he came home for 16th place in 11:58 while Lucas Emeagi ran an impressive 12:37 in his first ever XC race for 29th place.

Jordan Hinds was the club's only representative in the U20 girls age group and ran a strong race in a competitive field for 20th place in 22.44 over 5k

Chasing Pumpkins 10k

Epping Forest

Sunday 27th October

Chasing Pumpkins in aid of Havens Hospice was back for a second year.

An official chip-timed trail run, where the 10K course takes you through Epping Forest and around Higham's Park Lake is multi terrain and recent rain made the course very muddy.

Alison Sale was Ilfords sole representative and was very pleased with her time of 53 mins 21 seconds which placed her in 8th place and first female home.

Beachy head 10k

Eastbourne

Sunday 27th October

The Eastbourne Beachy Head 10k has grown from its introduction in 2013. It is popular for its route through the South Downs National Park countryside that offers breathtaking views, although the hills can be very challenging.

Two Ilford AC runners took part on Sunday, Ray 'Sparra' Everingham and wife Wendy who was competing in her first ever Cross country race.

Both runners rose to the challenge and ran well on the difficult course with Sparra posting a time of 1 hr 8 mins and 38 seconds for 462nd place and wife Wendy finishing in 1 hr 24 mins and 48 secs for 742nd place
