

Barcelona Half Marathon

Sunday 16th February

The Barcelona Half Marathon is one of the biggest running events in Spain attracting close to 19,000 runners, one of whom was Ray 'Sparra' Everingham from Ilford AC running his second international running event in preparation for his first ever Marathon in London in April.

Escaping 'Storm Dennis', which cancelled most events in England at the weekend the race nonetheless took part on an overcast but chilly morning.

Starting and finishing at the Parc de la Cuitadella, Sparras aim was his first sub 2 hour marathon, so prepared was he that he had his planned split times written on the back of his hand!.

After a steady start the congestion on some parts of the route meant the sub 2 hour target slowly slipped away but he was still very pleased with his time of 2 hours 7 minutes 24 seconds which was a PB by over 2 and a half minutes for the distance.
