We are still at least 3 Marshals short for Sunday.

At a bare minimum we need 8 Marshal points and although they are all covered, you can see below that 3 points are only covered by one person, including poor Mrs Green and Nicola – who will find two hours of not talking to someone agony!

Neil also needs to get away at 12:15 so we need someone to cover his position for the final 30 minutes or so of the race.

If both East London Runners and Dagenham 88 can provide more runners than us at OUR Championships, then I'm assuming we have a lot of injured runners who are free to help out on the day?
