

Cardiff University Half marathon

Cardiff, Wales

27th March 2022

The Welsh capital had to wait 903 days for the return of the Cardiff University Cardiff Half Marathon, the nation's largest mass-participation event.

Starting just outside Cardiff Castle the participants raced through the city centre, past the Principality Stadium and Cardiff City Stadium before crossing the barrage to take in Cardiff Bay. From there they headed for the Roath Park loop before a sprint finish in the heart of the city at the Civic Centre.

In a quality line-up, which included Kadar Omar of Birchfield and the Mohamed brothers from Southampton, Ilford's Ahmed more than held his own on his first attempt at the distance going with the main group at the beginning slipping back to 16th place, but coming back strong in the latter part of the race to finish in 10th in a brilliant time 67minutes dead.

The eventual winner Kadar Omar of Birchfield finished in 62 minutes 46 seconds

LAST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH 5km

Hyde Park, London

Friday 25 March

On a spring like day two athletes from Ilford AC took part in the lunchtime 5km in Hyde Park over a two lap fast course

There are 2 races, an 'A' race for those expecting to finish in under 22 minutes, and a 'B' race for all others. Both Ilford runners competed in the 'A' race.

Gary Coombes attacked the race and was rewarded with a fast time of 16 mins 38 secs for 14th place. This time places Gary 2nd in the all-time Ilford AC records for a V50 male over the distance.
