South of England Champs

Chelmsford

12th / 13th June

Several athletes from Ilford recently competed in the South of England Championships, which these years were held at Chelmsford.

Samuel Crane and Ryder Islam took part in the U15's 3000m, for the latter it was his first track race over the distance. In warm, but windy conditions they both acquitted themselves well, with Samuel finishing 7th in 10.42.59 and Ryder 10th in 11.10.25.

Joseph Grange took part in the U17 3000m, the pace was fast from the start, and Joseph sat off the early pace, content to lead the second group. The two leaders split after three laps, with Peck of St Edmunds pacers moving clear of Ballard of Colchester. Joseph by now was clear in 3rd place and was gaining rapidly on the Colchester athlete. He managed to catch him with 800m to go, but did not quite have the strength to push on. Over the last lap Ballard broke clear, but Joseph hung on for a very good 3rd place in a pb time of 8.53.67.

Dylan Harrod and Farris Vakil took part in the U20 800m,, Dylan ran 2.04 in his heat, but unfortunately did not progress to the final. Farris won his heat in 1.59. The final the next day was a cagey affair with nobody wanting to force the pace, the ball was reached in 58 seconds and Jamie Rashbrooke of Basildon shot to the front creating a large gap. Farris was first to respond but could not catch the Basildon athlete who held on to win in a time of 1.53. Farris tired up a bit over the last 10 metres and just missed a medal in 4th place.

Jordan Hinds was Ilford sole entrant in the women's 800m which turned out to be a straight final, in a very competitive race, Jordan placed 5th in a time of 2.22.4

Krystle Balogun competed in the senior ladies 200m, and placed 35th in her heat in a time of 26.17.
