We have the opportunity of putting 2 teams in this event this year. We have 10 people so far , and are looking for another 6 to make us up to 2 teams.

The event takes place at Ashton playing fields, cost around £12 for which a fish and chip meal (other choices available) is provided.

There is a bar and you can bring your own snacks.

We have won the quiz a few times and would be great to be challenging again.

If interested in coming along let me know asap
