I have had a few people recently wanting our Dark Blue Centenary Technical training tops. These were supposed to be a 'one-off' and there are only a few remaining but Andy has given me permission to do one final order, so this really is your last chance if you want one. I will place the order on 3rd January so if you need one and its not in stock please order now.

I will also be doing a re-stock of our original Light blue training tops. This is unlikely to be restocked for 12-18 months (as we have to order 100 to keep costs down) so if there are any particular sizes or ladies cuts you want or might want to put by, again please let me know by 3rd January as we will only be carrying overstock of Unisex S/M/L

Unfortunately costs have gone up and we now have to sell at £20 per top to break even BUT Andy has agreed that any pre-orders can be had for £17 each, so strike whilst the iron is hot !

Attached is a size guide and current stock

Cheers

Billy
