

Ilford AC Athletes Shine at the Chicago Marathon

Chicago Marathon

Ilford AC made a strong showing at the 46th edition of the Chicago Marathon, one of the world's largest marathons with over 52,000 finishers. The race, part of the World Marathon Majors, saw three Ilford AC athletes take on the notoriously fast course, with impressive results.

Leading the way for Ilford AC was Sam Rahman, who crossed the finish line in an outstanding time of 2:47:41 which was just outside his personal best for the distance.

Danny Holeyman delivered a remarkable performance, smashing his previous personal best by a significant 6 minutes. Holeyman's finish time of 3:01:05 was a testament to his hard work and dedication.

Completing the Ilford AC trio was Richard Woolterton, who finished in a very respectable time of 3:18:22.

Ilford AC's performance at the Chicago Marathon was a source of pride for the club. The athletes' dedication, training, and competitive spirit were on full display, and their results showcased the club's strength in marathon running.
